

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

HOUSTON DIVISION

In re:	§	CASE NO. 12-33338-H4-7
	§	HOUSTON, TX
AFI SERVICES LLC,	§	DECEMBER 19, 2013
Debtor.	§
	§	BEFORE THE HONORABLE JEFF
	§	BOHM UNITED STATES CHIEF
	§	BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

HEARING ON MOTION FOR COMPENSATION AND FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

TRANSCRIPT EXCERPTS:

“...the benefits provided to the estate by counsel are huge. Mr. Vethan did an extremely good job. His firm did. Got a million dollars judgment. And if you go back and look at the docket sheet when this fight first broke out it was by no means clear that the trustee was going to get anything. So when Mr. Vethan and his firm, you know, and Mr. Colvin did clearly an exquisite job. I know that ‘cause I read their pleadings, I read their briefing. I issued rulings based upon a very fine briefing and, you know, excellent -- excellent work.”

“And let me say, the other thing, the other message I want to convey, also, is I’m not – I want Mr. Vethan’s firm to come back and represent trustees in the future.”

“I think Mr. Vethan has experience trying cases. I want, you know, junk yard dogs representing Chapter 7 trustees. I want folks who will take a matter to trial and whose reputation is they’ll go to trial so that trustees will recover the absolute max.”